

Inventions Wiki Worksheet

Complete this sheet on your technological invention prior to starting your wiki.

Invention:

Inventor:

Group Members with email addresses:

Part One

Many technology inventions have impacted our lives personally, our communities and globally. The research questions in part one of this activity are designed to provide a synopsis of the selected technology invention and how it has impacted our society. It will also demonstrate how inventors develop inventions/innovations to meet a specified or general Students should include a link to each site that provides an answer for each of the research questions.

Research questions:

- What are some of the significant technological Inventions and innovations that have impacted our global societies?

- In what ways are some of the technological developments similar or different in other countries from those in our country?

- In general, would you say that modern technology developed over the past fifty years has made the world a better or worse place in which to live? Are people's lives happier or unhappier as a result of modern technology?

- How some of these technologies from the different countries are impacting the way we are educated, entertained, transported, accommodated or employed.

- What are some of ways in which some of the technological inventions/innovations and from each country negatively impacted the society?

- What do you envision as future uses of your selected invention in our everyday lives?

- Contrast the pros and cons of your technology invention.

- What are some of the needs that inspired the creation of the invention?

Duke Longman (2011)